

PHOTO SCORE CARD

NAME _____

CLUB _____

Each photograph is scored in three categories -- composition, technique, and appeal. Composition is the placement of photo elements, camera angle, and lighting. Technique is how well the photo was printed and mounted. Appeal is how well you like the photo. Score each category from 1 to 5 -- 5 being the best.

Total the 3 categories for each photo, then mark your placings for each series. Pick up an answer sheet where you were given the score card. Compare your rating with our judge's. You may not agree! That's not important. What's important is to give sound photographic and artistic reasons for your ratings.
