

Sedgwick County Educator/Intern Position

About This Role:

K-State Extension (KSE) Sedgwick County is seeking two Educators/Summer Interns to provide high-quality local and regional 4-H programming to Kansas youth. Educators/Interns will be responsible for planning, organizing, facilitating and teaching lessons to youth with research-based curriculum provided by K-State Extension.

This position is a full-time (up to 40 hours/week), 12-week internship that will run approximately May 18, 2026 – August 8, 2026.

Responsibilities:

- Plan, coordinate, promote, teach and evaluate educational programs under the direction of the local Extension Agent(s) and state-wide Engagement Leader team.
- Partner with community groups and schools for summer programming; Educators/Interns will supply, plan, coordinate and teach programs as requested by these partners.
- With help from local extension staff, Educators/Interns will market communications about programs and events through various platforms and communication sources (social media, email, newspaper, 4-H Newsletter, local school districts, libraries, 4-H Clubs, etc.)
- Coordinate and teach Extension programs through 4-H summer camps, day camps, and other youth events through local extension office.
- Distribute, collect and report on program evaluations for programs delivered.
- Complete program reports tracking participants engagement in programming.
- Encourage youth and volunteer recruitment in the local 4-H program.
- Participate in professional staff development. (In-person training, weekly Zoom meetings or others that may become available.)
- Complete other responsibilities assigned by the local extension agent and/or Engagement Leader Team to do with the 4-H grant program.

Why Join Us:

In 4-H, we believe in the power of young people. We see that every child has valuable strengths and real influence to improve the world around us. We are America's largest youth development organization —empowering nearly six million young people across the U.S. and over 74,000 youth in Kansas with the skills to lead for a lifetime.
